ORDER

PGDeG is a joint programme, offered by Institute of Management in Government (IMG) and Indian Institute of Information Technology and Management-Kerala (IITMK) for one year duration, with the objective of quality training in the area of e-Governance for successful implementation of e-governance projects of Government of Kerala. The course is spread across 2 semesters of six months duration each with an intake of 45 participants.

As per G.O read as (1) above out of 45 seats, 15 seats are reserved for Government officials and also Government have sponsored 90% of the fee for the nominated candidate for Government sector and the remaining 10% to be paid by the candidate himself. Every year Government sponsored candidates are selected for the course as per the criteria laid down in the GO read as first paper above.

The Director, KSITM as per letter read as 3rd paper above have requested to constitute an Evaluation Committee for evaluating and scrutinizing nominations forwarded by Heads of Departments.

Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to constitute an Evaluation Committee for evaluating and scrutinizing nominations received for PGDeG Course. The structure of the evaluation committee will be as follows.

1. Principal Secretary, ITD- Chairman
2. Director, KSITM-Convenor
3. Director, IMG- Member
4. Director, IITMK-Member

The Convenor shall furnish the merit list of candidates as finalized by Evaluation Committee to Government this year onwards well in advance of the commencement of the course.
